- I must file the prescribed forms by the specified statutory date if I have unspent contributions;
- A violation of the reporting of unspent contributions is subject to a civil penalty of up to $5,000 for each violation and payment of court costs and attorney's fees;
- If I am a candidate for public office and have contributions that remain unspent from the previous election cycle, I must file the required Disposition of Unspent Contributions Report even though:

 - (2) I have no opposition;
 - (3) I lose the primary;
 - (4) My name does not appear on either the primary or general election ballot;
 - (5) I am elected to office; or
 - (6) I do not file a declaration of candidacy, but am a candidate as defined in NRS 294A.005 because I have received campaign contributions in excess of $100.
- If I am an elected public officer and have contributions that remain unspent from the previous election cycle, I must file the required Disposition of Unspent Contributions Report every January 15 during my term of office. I must also file (if contributions remain) within two months after I no longer hold office due to resignation, removal from office or expiration of term.
